When coming out of the corner, the horse shall be close enough to the cow to demonstrate control with the cow against the fence. This distance and control should be maintained for approximately 3/4 of the length of the arena. The exhibitor will then back the horse off the cow and move the horse toward the center of the arena to set the cow up for boxing until time expires. 4) BOXING: The exhibitor will again control the cow at the opposite end of the arena to demonstrate the horse's ability to control the cow.
