

An Exclusive Tour for the Missouri Fox Trotting Horse Enthusiast

The Stallion Tour provides attendees a unique opportunity to see numerous Missouri Fox Trotting Horse Stallions in one day, helping you find that perfect match to the mare you are considering breeding. Attendees won't have to worry about anything. A deluxe motor coach will take you to Tour venues where you will be able to talk to stallion owners or handlers and see them in action. In addition, you will be provided a continental breakfast and lunch to make it an all-around fun filled day!

Even if you are not planning on breeding a mare, the Tour offers any Missouri Fox Trotting Horse enthusiast an amazing opportunity to see some of the elite stallions as well as some of the up and coming horses within the breed.

Schedule for the Tour:

Kickoff Breakfast and Registration: The Tour will launch at our host hotel with a kickoff continental breakfast. Attendees will board the tour bus to begin their journey. From there, attendees will head out on a luxury motor coach to visit tour stops.

Final tour times are still being set; however, participants can plan on leaving the hotel around 8:30 a.m. Attendees will arrive back at the hotel for a happy hour reception around 6 p.m. Specific start and end times will be provided in your confirmation packet.

Each registered attendee will receive:

- Transportation the day of the event on a luxury deluxe motor coach
- Continental breakfast and lunch
- Commemorative event program highlighting each event stallion
- Ticket to the event happy hour
- Special Stallion Tour gifts
- Plus, one lucky attendee will win a free breeding to one of the participating stallions! Event organizers will cover the breeding fee; the winner will be responsible for all other costs.

This is an exclusive tour. All attendees must be registered and no personal vehicles may be taken to tour locations. Participants will begin and end the tour at our host hotel in Springfield, Missouri.
