A judge, upon arrival at the show which he or she is to officiate as judge, is directed to contact an official of the show, advising that official of his/her arrival and location. Judges hired for a single session during one of the MFTHBA National Shows should not arrive at the show office more than one hour prior to the start of the session to be judged.

In the space below, please provide justification for the change.
Justification must include discussion regarding the problem to be addressed with the change, potential impact to other portions of the rule book, and why the proposed change is the best solution to address the problem. If necessary utilize a separate page for additional information.

Some judges arrive too early for the session to be judged and no member of show management or the judges committee is available to receive them. They may be waiting in the show office while exhibitors are entering horses.
